

Sunday Morning Book Study on “A Testament of Devotion”

You may remember that in the first months of the pandemic, I was frequently quoting a Quaker contemplative, Thomas Kelly. I offered to lead a discussion group of his short, classic work, “A Testament of Devotion.” I am finally making good on that promise, and will offer a Sunday morning Zoom group at 9 A.M. for five weeks, beginning October 4 and running through November 1.

Each week we will discuss one of the five short essays, and spend time in silent prayer. Please be prepared to discuss the first essay on October 4. Please call the church office (941-746-8890) or email the office (faithchurchucc@verizon.net) to sign up. Here is a description of the book:

“Since its first publication in 1941, A Testament of Devotion, by the renowned Quaker teacher Thomas Kelly, has been universally embraced as a truly enduring spiritual classic. Plainspoken and deeply inspirational, it gathers together five compelling essays that urge us to center our lives on God's presence, to find quiet and stillness within modern life, and to discover the deeply satisfying and lasting peace of the inner spiritual journey. As relevant today as it was a half-century ago, A Testament of Devotion is the ideal companion to that highest of all human arts—the lifelong conversation between God and his creatures.”
